The book is complete!

One of the many dreams I have had for the museum was to create a book in honor of Caruso and his memory. Today that dream has finally been fulfilled!

In "My Caruso" I bring to the pages my personal testimony, based on the oral tradition lineage of which I was part of, dating back to Caruso through the written and spoken testimony of Marziale Sisca, and his son, Michael. You will be sitting in on one hundred year-old stories of and conversations with Caruso!

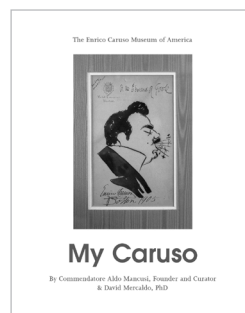

Also included in this book is the gallery chronicling the history of the Museum's many artifacts, from where they originated to the personal stories attached to them.
